Please be aware that someone from Hope Vet will contact you and those individuals you listed as references to review your application prior to completing an adoption.

Finally, we ask that you make an adoption contribution: It costs us usually no less than $300 to prepare and board an animal for adoption. This includes everything from examinations and vaccines, neutering, microchipping, and FeLV/FIV testing, to food, laundry and general staff time involved in boarding. The average donation is $175.00.
